TEAM SELECTION

Choose from 8 of your favorite professional teams by using the D-pad to go up and down (or the select button for those of you who are D-pad impaired)

Be sure to use a team that you know best there's some stiff competition out there. You don't want to be on a team with a jammer you can't play with!!!

PLAYER SELECTION

You have to send 4 players out into the skate rink at a time. Make sure to give your players sufficient rest so that they don't get winded and faint in the rink Use the D-pad or select button to go up and down. A and B button both select and deselect. When you are happy with your team press start. If you want your team to be randomly selected, deselect everyone and press start!!

RULES AND SCORING

Roller derby takes place on a circuit track. Offense and defense are played simultaneously. The two teams playing send four players each onto the track, one jammer (scorer), two blockers (defense), pivot (a blocker who may become the jammer later in that jam if your jammer loses all her health). You are always the Jammer on your team! Use your blockers to your advantage!

Pivots line up on the pivot line and all blockers must line up behind them in any order they choose. The two jammers, who are not considered to be part of the pack, are positioned on the jammer line 30 feet behind the pivot line.

A jam is a 90-second countdown period during which both teams attempt to score points. You want to become the lead jammer by getting the best start. Most of the time by getting to and passing the other teams first blocker first. Once the first point is scored the timer starts! Only the lead jammer can score.

Each game consists of 3 periods in which there is 3 rounds for a grand total of 9 rounds. At the end of each jam, teams field another line up of players and the next jam starts. You can get a maximum of 4 points as the lead jammer!

LEAD JAMMER

As the lead jammer you want to pass as many of the opposing teams blockers in the 90 second jam. For each blocker you pass you get 1 point. Be careful and skate fast to get the most points!!!

OPPOSING JAMMER

As the opposing jammer you are on the defense and you want to make sure that their lead jammer does not pass any of your team members. Do this buy punching them and getting in their way. You can not score points in the Jam if you are the opposing jammer.

SKATING

As your team's jammer it is your job to go out there and skate your tight little pants off. Watch out for flying objects and avoid pits and jumps. Try staying near the middle of the course to avoid being pushed out. Make your way passed blockers and score points, or play defense and punch the opposing jammer!! Go get em kid!

FIGHTING

Everyone is fair game when it comes to fights, even pissed of fans in the stands get pissed and fight each other. Fans can even fight players!!! You take control of the fan that is rooting for your team, or the respective member of your team that is in a fight. Be careful when skating by edges, this is where the most fights occur!

A Low Punch	B Mid Block

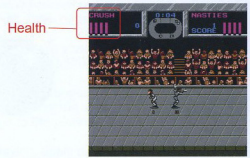
HEALTH METER

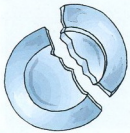
When you lose all your health your jammer falls down and can't get back up. You are still in game and every time you are passed by the opposing lead jammer (if this is their jam) you give up a point. Make sure to keep your team at full strength. When you as the lead jammer lose all your health the next member of your team to pass you you will take control over.



FLYING OBJECTS

This is not your normal sports arena. Lots of the fans have snuck in weapons or are so wealthy they can repeatedly buy whole chicken legs and fine china to throw at you. Be careful out there. Don't be afraid to jump in the crowd and beat the crap out of a fan that deserves a beat down. Show them who's boss! Teach them a lesson or three! It's seriously cutthroat out there!

Remember there are no RULES!



TAKING CARE OF YOUR JALECO GAME
